Sincerely Louise Author to Speak

Author Gloria Boyd will discuss and read from her new book Sincerely Louise on Sunday, February 5, from 1 – 2 p.m., at the Ashland Branch Library, 410 Siskiyou Boulevard.

Through writing this book, Gloria Boyd came to know her mother Louise in a new and wonderful way. Parts of this story are from Louise's own words, parts from early pictures of rural Connecticut in the early 1900s, and the rest from Ms. Boyd's imagination. You may call the book a memoir, a fictional biography or a tall tale. Ms. Boyd simply calls it Sincerely Louise.

Before moving to Ashland, the author wrote articles for the Washington Post, Christian Science Monitor, and other publications while raising her four children.

This author visit is proudly sponsored by the Friends of the Ashland Public Library. For more information, please call 541-774-6996.
