The Central Point Branch Library Presents: SAMURAI!

Each Wednesday afternoon in January features slicing and dicing with classic samurai films, from 3:30 – 5:30 p.m., at the Central Point Branch Library, 116 South Third Street.

The Samurai series will focus on the adventures of Yojimbo and Zatoichi, both separately and for their one-time meeting. Come and see Akira Kurosawa, Toshiro Mifune and Shintaro Katsu use their talents to bring these two legendary swordsmen to life on the movie screen.

All movies will be shown in Japanese with English subtitles. Movies will be preceded by a classic cartoon or short film.

Free popcorn and admission is provided by the Central Point Friends of the Library. For more information, please contact the Central Point Branch Library at 541-664-3228.
