The Accidental Ensemble Sings in Jacksonville

The Accidental Ensemble will return by popular demand on Friday, February 10, from 7 – 8 p.m., in the Naversen Community Meeting Room of the Jacksonville Branch Library, 340 West "C" Street. Please use the California Street entrance.

The ensemble's repertoire consists of songs from eighteenth-century music to contemporary songs including early-American selections. Their greatest pleasure is energizing their audiences through song, poetry, humor, and prose. Come and enjoy this unique a-cappella performance.

This special benefit performance to sustain Saturday open hours for the library is sponsored by the Jacksonville Friends of the Library. A contribution of $5 would be appreciated. For more information, please call the Jacksonville Branch Library at 541-899-1665.
