Library Research at Your Fingertips

Whether you are in the doctor's office, at your kitchen table, or under the hood of your car, Jackson County Library Services is excited to announce a way to bring the library to you.

By downloading the free Gale AccessMyLibrary mobile application for the iPhone by searching "AccessMyLibrary," research is simple, allowing access to Jackson County Library Services' Online Resources from Gale wherever you are. AccessMyLibrary finds your global position and locates libraries within a ten-mile radius.

Some of JCLS' Online Resources from Gale that you access from your iPhone:

- Biography Resource Center
- Small Business Resource Center
- Gale Virtual Reference Library
- Student Resource Center
- General OneFile (Magazines and Journals)

Explore all of JCLS' Online Resources at www.jcls.org. For more information, please call Kim Wolfe at 541-774-6443.
