

PRESS RELEASE

Release Date: July 22, 2010

Contact: Marian Barker, 541-774-6423

Eulenspiegel Puppeteers Perform at Local Libraries

As part of its Summer Reading Program, Jackson County Library Services is proud to host three performances by the internationally-known Eulenspiegel Puppeteers. The touring troupe will be presenting Little Red Riding Hood using Bohemian rod marionettes and handmade pop-up scenery. The performance schedule is:

Wednesday, August 4

1:00 – 2:00 p.m., Medford Branch Library, 205 South Central Avenue

3:30 – 4:30 p.m., Gold Hill Branch Library, 202 Dardanelles Street

Friday, August 6

10:30 – 11:30 a.m., Rogue River Branch Library, 412 East Main Street

Founded in 1974, the Eulenspiegel Puppeteers have experimented with almost every type of puppet imaginable and have collaborated with musicians, playwrights, directors, designers, and other theater companies. Eulenspiegel is known for witty scripts, original and expressive puppet designs, soft-sculpted and hand-dyed scenery, evocative music, and strong graphics.

For more information, please call Marian Barker, Youth Services Manager for Jackson County Library Services, at 541-774-6423.

JACKSON COUNTY
Library Services

LIBRARY DIRECTOR: DENISE GALARRAGA

Telephone: 774-8679
205 South Central Avenue
Medford, Oregon 97501