

Jackson County Library Services

Summer Reading Outreach Program

Help children develop a love of reading.

Volunteer to read with small groups of young children in local child care centers.

Join us Thursday, May 21 or June 18, at Noon at the Family Nurturing Center, 212 North Oakdale Street

Lunch and Information provided by the

Child Care Resource Network Partner in the Jackson County Circle of Caring

To reserve a spot or questions, contact:

- Rita Vance, Volunteer, 779-5242
- Carrie Prechtel,
JCLS Community Outreach Specialist
774-6407, cprechtel@jcls.org

The Family Nurturing Center is a free therapeutic preschool and parent support program and the administering agency of the Jackson County Circle of Caring Project, one of three projects in Oregon funded by the Oregon Community Foundation and the Juan Young Trust.