

Volunteer Opportunities

Please consider the following positions and contact Carrie for more details at 541-774-6407 or cprechtel@jcls.org if you:

~are looking to help out in addition to your usual assignment,

~are ready for something new, or

~know of someone who would like to volunteer.

- Jacksonville Branch needs a Storytime Helper on Tuesdays from 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. This person would help set up, help during storytime, and help clean up after.
- Medford Branch needs Rovers who can help patrons with book and catalog searches on Mondays and Tuesdays from 12 noon – 2 p.m., Wednesdays from 10 a.m. – 12 noon, and Saturdays from 2 – 4 p.m.
- Medford Branch needs Technical Services Assistants to help a couple hours a week to do book mending, book jacketing, spine labeling, and replacing of damaged A/V cases. Attention to detail and precision are needed for this behind-the-scenes assignment in a fun department.
- Medford Branch Outreach Department needs an assistant who will help with DVD donations as well as check and re-shelve incoming flannel board packages. Scheduling for days and hours are flexible, 2-3 hours a week.
- Rogue River Branch needs several Library Volunteers to help with shelving and other general library tasks.
- Ruch Branch needs a Storytime Helper on Tuesdays from 11 a.m. – 1 p.m. This person would help set up, help during storytime, and help clean up after.

New Releases in Books and Movies

You can access new release titles available at your library through Quick Links on www.jcls.org. This link will take you directly to the library catalog where you can search, get a summary, and reserve new release books and movies, right from your computer.

Looking for the new best-selling biography? Want to see if there is a movie to watch on a stormy night? Use this easy feature and have it waiting for you on your next visit to the library.

Featured Library Event: Local Artists Exhibit at Rogue River Branch Library

Two local artists will be exhibiting several of their pieces from now until February 28 at the Rogue River Branch Library, 412 East Main Street. Marianne Moskowitz is an artist and writer living Sunny Valley. She has been studying and practicing art since moving to Southern Oregon twelve years ago. Karen Jordann grew up in Wisconsin, and now resides in Southern Oregon. Art classes led her to a renewed interest in art.

Volunteer Spotlight

Lindy Britt has been a wonderful addition to the Jacksonville Library for the last seven years. We are very fortunate to have her as a volunteer.

Lindy and her husband came to Jacksonville nearly ten years ago from Danville, California. They have raised three sons and now have several grandchildren. Before retiring and moving to Oregon, Lindy managed a pediatric clinic for ten years.

Most of Lindy's volunteer time is spent shelving and pulling books for patron's hold requests. During the summer she often helps prepare crafts and activities for children.

Lindy enjoys spending time with her family and friends. She also volunteers at St. Vincent de Paul where she helps prepare and serve meals to the homeless. (I know she enjoys baking because she sometimes brings us wonderful treats.) Thank you, Lindy, for sharing your time with us at the library.

Jacksonville Branch Manager

This is our last chance

(this year)

to thank you for your wonderful support of Jackson County Libraries.

THANK YOU!
